JAY McNEIL

PRESIDENT AND CFL ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

McNeil was appointed team president on Jan. 23, 2024. The former Stampeders offensive lineman had returned to the organization on Sept. 22, 2022, in the role of vice-president of business operations.

In his role, McNeil oversees all areas of the Stampeders' operations and also represents the club at the league level. He played an instrumental role in the Stampeders' winning bid to host the 2026 Grey Cup game and festival.

McNeil played for the Stampeders from 1994 to 2007, earning Canadian Football League all-star recognition on three occasions and West Division all-star honours six times. McNeil was a member of Grey Cup-championship teams in 1998 and 2001 and was twice voted by teammates as the winner of the Presidents' Ring for excellence on and off the field.

After his playing career, McNeil remained in Calgary and built a strong business career, leading sales and business operations for a number of companies including Trinidad Drilling, Tervita, Secure Energy and most recently in the role of COO for Cleantek Industries.

McNeil also maintained strong ties to football, serving as a trustee for the CFL Players Pension Plan and as vice-president of the Canadian Football League Players Association. He also continued his association with the Stampeders, acting as a community ambassador for the team's alumni association.

McNeil has a Bachelor of Business Administration from Kent State University and a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Fredericton.

McNeil lives in Calgary with his wife Tara and son Cuyler. The family enjoys travelling, skiing and Calgary's vibrant food scene.

DAVE DICKENSON GENERAL MANAGER AND HEAD COACH

CFL - 18 | STAMPS - 18

Dickenson is in his 18th season on the Stampeders coaching staff, his 10th as the team's head coach and his fourth with the additional role of general manager.

His regular-season record as head coach through nine seasons is 95-60-3.

Dickenson ranks third in franchise history in both games coached and victories. He owns five Grey Cup rings – three as a player and two as a coach.

His coaching career began in 2009 when he was named Calgary's running backs coach. That season, Stampeders running back Joffrey Reynolds claimed the CFL rushing crown.

In 2010, he was named Calgary's quarterbacks coach and Stamps pivot Henry Burris was voted the CFL's Most Outstanding Player.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2011, Dickenson oversaw a Stamps offence that was among the league leaders in numerous categories. In four seasons from 2012-15 under Dickenson's tutelage, the Stampeders offence led the CFL in cumulative points scored, finishing either first or second each year. He was part of a Grey Cup championship team in 2014.

On Dec. 1, 2015, Dickenson was named the 25th head coach in Stampeders history.

In 2016 – his first season at the helm – the Stampeders set a franchise record with 31 standings points thanks to a 15-2-1 record. The Stamps had the CFL's highest-scoring offence as well as the stingiest defence and the team reached the Grey Cup championship game. Dickenson won the Annis Stukus Trophy as the CFL's coach of the year.

In 2017, Dickenson was the West Division finalist for coach of the year as the Stamps finished first in the West with a 13-4-1 record and again made it to the Grey Cup game.

In 2018, Dickenson led the Stamps to their eighth Grey Cup title in franchise history as Calgary defeated the Ottawa Redblacks 27-16. The Stamps finished atop the West and advanced to the Grey Cup for a third straight season.

In 2019, the Stampeders finished second in the West Division with a record of 12-6 and earned the right to host a playoff game for a fourth consecutive year with Dickenson at the helm. The Stamps led the league with a turnover ratio of plus-15 and were the second-least penalized team in the CFL.

In 2021, the Stampeders rallied from a slow start to win six of their last seven regular-season games. The strong finish allowed the Stamps to continue their streaks of winning seasons and playoff appearances.

Calgary finished 12-6 in 2022, led the CFL with 562 points scored and ranked second in the league with 397 points allowed. Eleven Stampeders received West Division all-star nods and eight players were named CFL all-stars.

In 2023, Dickenson led the Stamps to an 18th consecutive playoff appearance. The Stamps' run of post-season appearances was in jeopardy until back-to-back clutch victories in October – at home against Saskatchewan and on the road against BC – allowed Calgary to clinch a playoff berth.

After a one-year absence from the post-season, Dickenson guided the Red and White back to the playoffs in 2025 as Calgary posted an 11-7 record and a six-win improvement from the previous season.

Dickenson joined the Calgary coaching staff after an outstanding 13-year professional playing career. He spent 11 of his 13 seasons in the Canadian Football League, six of those with the Stampeders (1996-2000 and 2008) and was part of the Canadian Football Hall of Fame's class of 2015.

A potent combination of intelligence, athletic ability and courage, Dickenson set a number of CFL passing records and was named the league's Most Outstanding Player in 2000 after throwing for 4,636 yards, 36 touchdowns and only six interceptions while guiding the Stampeders to a 12-5-1 record.

After spending two seasons in the National Football League – with San Diego in 2001 and with Seattle, Miami and Detroit in 2002 – Dickenson returned to Canada and signed with the BC Lions. After five seasons with the Leos – including a 2005 campaign in which he established league records for highest completion percentage and quarterback rating in a single season and an MVP performance in the 2006 Grey Cup – Dickenson returned to Calgary in 2008 for what proved to be his final season.

Dickenson joined the Stampeders in 1996 after a stellar career at the University of Montana. He was a three-time conference MVP with the Grizzlies and in 1995 led the nation in passing while guiding Montana to the NCAA Division 1-AA national title. He was named a member of the College Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2018 and was part of the Big Sky Conference's inaugural Hall of Fame class in 2020.

He and his wife Tammy along with children Avery and Cooper live in Calgary year-round. His coaching role extends into the off-season as he annually operates the Dickenson Passing Academy to work with young quarterbacks and receivers.

PAT DELMONACO

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR AND RUNNING BACKS LINE COACH

CFL • 17 | STAMPS • 13

DelMonaco is in his 13th season on the Stampeders' coaching staff and his seventh as the team's offensive coordinator. He has been on staff for Grey Cup wins in 2014 and 2018.

In 12 seasons with DelMonaco as offensive line coach, the Stamps finished in the top three for fewest sacks allowed on 11 occasions.

DelMonaco joined the Stamps in 2014 after spending the previous four seasons as the offensive line coach for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Under DelMonaco, members of the Blue Bombers offensive line earned a total of five division all-star honours.

In DelMonaco's first year as Calgary's offensive line coach, left tackle Stanley Bryant and centre Brett Jones were CFL all-stars as they helped the Stampeders lead the league with 143.9 rushing yards per game.

The Stampeders did not allow a single sack in the 102nd Grey Cup game as Calgary beat Hamilton to win the seventh title in franchise history.

In 2015, the offensive line paved the way for three different tailbacks to record 100-yard games. Pierre Lavertu and Spencer Wilson were West Division all-stars.

The Stamps allowed the fewest sacks in the CFL for a third consecutive season in 2016. Two members of the offensive line — Derek Dennis and Spencer Wilson — were named CFL all-stars and Dennis was voted the league's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman.

In 2017, Ucambre Williams became the team's starting centre despite limited experience at the position and was Calgary's nominee for the CFL's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman award.

In 2018, the Calgary offensive line tied for the league lead in fewest sacks allowed with 27 and Dennis earned West Division all-star honours. The Stamps allowed just one sack in a win over Ottawa in the Grey Cup championship game.

In 2019, Calgary allowed the second-fewest sacks in the CFL with 34. Offensive lineman Shane Bergman was the Stamps' nominee for Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman and earned West Division and CFL all-star recognition.

The Stampeders allowed just 20 sacks in 2021 — the second-lowest total in the league — despite nine different offensive linemen making a start including four who were making their first starts of their careers. In DelMonaco's first season with the additional of offensive coordinator, three different offensive players were named West Division all-stars — running back Ka'Deem Carey, centre Sean McEwen and receiver Kamar Jordan. McEwen was also a CFL all-star.

In 2022, the Stampeders led the CFL with 562 points scored and 135.3 rushing yards per game. Calgary allowed just 17 sacks, 12 fewer than the next-best team in that category. Three members of the offensive line — Dennis, McEwen and right guard Ryan Szeviour — made the West Division all-star team along with receiver Malik Henry and CFL rushing champion Carey. Three Stampeders — Dennis, McEwen and Carey — were named to the CFL all-star team.

The Calgary offence boasted a pair of West all-stars in 2023 including receiver Reggie Begelton and McEwen. Begelton was also a CFL all-star. Injuries forced the team to use 10 different starting offensive linemen over the course of the season but Calgary nevertheless managed to allow the third-fewest sacks in the league.

Begelton repeated his accomplishments as a division and league all-star in 2024.

In 2025, guard Zack Williams and running back Dedrick Mills earned West Division all-star honours and the Stampeders led the CFL in rushing offence with an average of 126.7 yards per game, led by CFL rushing champ Mills.

DelMonaco came to the CFL in 2010 after a seven-year stint at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He was RPI's offensive line coach for two seasons (2003-04) and the offensive coordinator for five years (2005-09).

He previously had stops at Hudson Valley Community College and as a graduate assistant at the University of Illinois. DelMonaco played offensive line for four seasons at the University of Albany and was a captain during his senior season. The Great Danes won two conference championships during DelMonaco's Albany career.

DelMonaco and his wife Kelly have two children — daughter Julia and son Pasquale III. Pasquale is a receiver for the University of Calgary Dinos.

BOB SLOWIK DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

CFL • 8 | STAMPS • 6

Slowik is in his sixth season with the Stampeders and his second as the team's defensive coordinator. He served as Calgary's defensive assistant in 2021 and was linebackers coach from 2022 to 2024.

In Slowik's first season as the team's defensive coordinator, Calgary had the league's second-best scoring defence and was also second in turnovers forced with 42. Four members of the defence – linemen Jaylon Hutchings and Clarence Hicks as well as defensive backs Adrian Greene and Damon Webb – earned West Division all-star honours with Hutchings also getting all-CFL recognition.

With the assistance of Slowik in his first season with the Red and White, the Stampeders ranked third in the CFL in team defence in 2021 and held their opponents to fewer than 300 yards of net offence five times.

As linebackers coach in 2022, two members of Slowik's group – Cameron Judge and Jameer Thurman – played an integral role in a Calgary defence that allowed the second-fewest points in the CFL. Both players finished top 10 in the league in tackles and Judge earned West Division and CFL all-star honours after leading the league in both fumble recoveries with five and big plays (a combination of interceptions, forced fumbles, fumble recoveries, blocked kicks and tackles, sacks or knockdowns leading to a turnover on downs).

Two members of Slowik's linebacking crew – Micah Awe and Judge – had stellar seasons for the Red and White in 2023. A West Division and CFL all-star in his first season with Calgary, Awe set a team record for most tackles in a season with 134 and led the league in both tackles and defensive plays. Judge was tied for second in the league and was first among linebackers with five interceptions in 2023 and also had 91 tackles, a fumble recovery and two forced fumbles.

In 2019, Slowik was defensive coordinator for the Montreal Alouettes. The Larks allowed the second-fewest points in the East Division and were led by linebacker Henoc Muamba, who won the CFL's Most Outstanding Canadian award. Five members of Slowik's unit – Muamba, John Bowman, Patrick Levels, Tommie Campbell and Greg Reid – were voted division all-stars while Muamba and Reid received league all-star recognition.

Prior to coming to the CFL, Slowik had a lengthy and distinguished career in the NFL including stints totaling 10 years as defensive coordinator with the Chicago Bears, Cleveland Browns, Green Bay Packers and Denver Broncos. During that time, six different players earned a combined total of 11 Pro Bowl honours and he coached two players – Champ Bailey and John Lynch – who went on to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

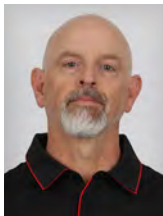

His 21 consecutive years as a coach in the NFL started with a position as defensive assistant on the Dallas Cowboys' Super Bowl-winning team following the 1992 season and concluded with four seasons with Washington from 2010-13.

Slowik coached 11 years in the collegiate ranks including five seasons in charge of the secondary at Rutgers, two seasons as outside linebackers coach at East Carolina and four seasons at Florida as a part-time defensive backs assistant.

During his playing days, he was a cornerback for the University of Delaware. He is an alumnus of Pittsburgh's Baldwin High School.

DeAngelis was a West all-star all five seasons under Dickenson and a league all-star on three occasions. Punter Burke Dales was twice a division all-star during that span.

In 2022 when Dickenson was head coach and special teams coordinator in Saskatchewan, Roughriders kick returner Mario Alford was voted the league's top special teams player.

South of the border, Dickenson has coached at the University of Montana, his alma mater, and Utah State as well as stints as a special teams assistant for the Chargers and the Raiders in the NFL.

During his playing career, Dickenson was a kicker at Montana. In 1995, Dickenson was part of the coaching staff and his younger brother Dave was the quarterback for a Grizzlies team that won the NCAA Division I-AA national championship.

MARKUS HOWELL

RECEIVERS COACH

CFL • 16 | STAMPS • 2

Howell is in his second season on the Stampeders staff and his 16th as a CFL coach.

In 2025, the Stamps' pass-catching corps was a balanced unit as five different players – Dominique Rhymes, Jalen Philpot, Erik Brooks, Tevin Jones and Clark Barnes – amassed at least 500 receiving yards. In addition, rookie Damien Alford had 407 yards and five touchdowns.

He began his coaching career in 2011 as linebackers coach for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, his hometown team. The Bombers finished first in the East Division that year, allowed a division-low 432 points and reached the Grey Cup championship game.

Starting in 2012 and for a total of four seasons, Howell served as Winnipeg's receivers coach. Under his tutelage, three different Blue Bombers pass-catchers – Clarence Denmark, Terrence Edwards and Chris Matthews – achieved 1,000-yard seasons and, in 2014, Denmark was a CFL and West Division all-star.

Howell was receivers coach for Saskatchewan in 2016 and 2017. In those two years, Roughriders receivers produced four 1,000-yard seasons including two by Naaman Roosevelt and one each by Duron Carter and Bakari Grant. Carter and Roosevelt were West Division all-stars in 2017 and Carter also earned CFL all-star recognition that season.

In 2018 and 2019, Howell was receivers coach and pass game coordinator of the BC Lions. Bryan Burnham was the standout of Howell's receiving corps as he earned division and league all-star honours both seasons. He cracked the 1,000-yard milestone twice and had 100 catches in 2019.

Howell was receivers coach and pass game coordinator for the Toronto Argonauts in 2021. The Argos finished in first place in the East Division and one of Howell's receivers – Kurligh Gittens Jr. – earned division all-star recognition.

From 2022 to 2024, Howell served as receivers coach and run game coordinator for the Edmonton Elks. Kenny Lawler was a West Division all-star for the Elks in 2022 while Eugene Lewis was a 1,000-yard receiver as well as a division and league all-star in 2024.

During his 11-year playing career with Winnipeg (2000-04, 2010), the Ottawa Renegades (2005) and the Stampeders (2006-09), the versatile Howell saw action as a receiver, defensive back and kick returner. He was a member of the Stampeders' Grey Cup championship team in 2008.

Prior to turning pro, Howell played football and ran track at Texas Southern University in Houston. He is an alumnus of Daniel McIntyre Collegiate Institute in Winnipeg.

CFL • 17 | STAMPS • 2

Miles is in his second season as the Stampeders' defensive backs coach and his 17th in the CFL. He became a coach after a distinguished 12-year playing career with the Montreal Alouettes and BC Lions.

In 2025, the Calgary secondary featured West Division all-stars Adrian Greene and Damon Webb and helped the Stamps finish in a tie for third in the league with 19 interceptions. The Stampeders led the CFL with five interception-return touchdowns including two each by Greene and Webb. Another DB, Derrick Moncrief, had one pick-six and was tops in the league with 12 tackles for loss.

Miles began his coaching career in 2010 as a defensive assistant with the Lions, the club with which he had concluded his playing career the previous season. He served in that role for two years and in 2011 was part of a defensive coaching staff that oversaw a unit that allowed a league-low 21.4 points per game.

From 2012 to 2014, Miles was defensive backs coach with the Saskatchewan Roughriders. Safety Tyron Brackenridge was a division and league all-star in both 2013 and 2014 while halfback Dwight Anderson was a West all-star in 2013. The Roughriders led the CFL in interceptions in 2013.

Mills was the Winnipeg Blue Bombers' DB coach in 2015. Johnny Adams was a West Division all-star that season after sharing the league lead in interceptions.

In 2016, Miles moved to Edmonton and was the Green and Gold's defensive backs and player development coach for four years. In 2017, the secondary boasted West and CFL all-star Kenny Ladler and helped Edmonton finish with the league's second-best pass defence. In 2019, Edmonton's defence allowed the fewest passing yards in the CFL.

Miles was hired as Montreal's defensive backs coach and run game coordinator in 2020 and was promoted to defensive coordinator when the league resumed play in 2021 after a one-year hiatus. He remained in that role until July 6, 2022. In 2021, the Als defence led the league in sacks and two-and-outs forced while defensive lineman David Ménard and defensive back Monshadrik Hunter were East Division all-stars.

Miles was named the Ottawa Redblacks' defensive coordinator in 2023 and in each of his two seasons in that position, the team led the CFL in fewest yards allowed per rushing attempt. Two members of the Redblacks – Bryce Carter and Brandin Dandridge – were East Division all-stars in 2023.

Under Miles in 2024, the Redblacks defence tied BC for the second-most sacks in the league and featured four division all-stars in Lorenzo Mauldin IV, Michael Wakefield, Adarius Pickett and Damon Webb. Mauldin and Webb were also league all-stars.

In 2022, in between his CFL stints with Montreal and Ottawa, Miles served as defensive coordinator at Bishop's University. The Gaiters boasted the second-stingiest defence in the Atlantic University Sport conference with an average of 15.0 points allowed per game and also ranked second in the conference with 22 sacks.

As a CFL player with Montreal and BC, Miles was a 10-time division all-star, six-time league all-star and two-time Grey Cup champion. He was elected to the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 2018.

In college, the Roselle, N.J., product starred at the University of Nebraska and was a part of the Cornhuskers' national-championship team in 1994.

GREY CUP HISTORY

The Calgary Stampeders have made it to the Grey Cup 17 times in their history and have eight championships to their credit.

The Stamps won their first championship in just their fourth year of existence, claiming the 1948 title. They returned to the Grey Cup in 1949 but this time lost the match to Montreal.

That would mark the end of the Stamps' participation in the big game until nearly two full decades later in 1968. Calgary lost the '68 contest but the appearance started a run in which the Red and White advanced to the Grey Cup three times in four seasons, culminating with a victory in 1971.

Then came another drought, this one lasting exactly 20 years before Calgary reached the Grey Cup in 1991. While the Stamps lost the 1991 Grey Cup game to Toronto, the contest nevertheless marked the dawn of an era of Stampeders excellence. The Red and White reached the Grey Cup game six times in the next 11 years and won three titles.

After a relatively short lull of six seasons, the Stamps returned to the pinnacle in 2008 and won again in 2014 and added another title in 2018.

In 2025, Derrick Moncrief was the recipient of the Presidents' Ring.

The Presidents' Ring is presented annually to the Calgary Stampeders player deemed by his teammates to best combine excellence on the football field with leadership, inspiration and motivational skills.

In his first year with the Red and White and his eighth in the CFL, Moncrief emerged as a locker-room leader and was a valuable contributor on the field. He recorded 67 tackles including a league-leading 12 tackles for loss, two interceptions including a pick-six, six knockdowns, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery in 18 regular-season starts and one playoff start at the SAM position.

Moncrief was also active in the Calgary community. He helped coach a Sport Calgary/Calgary Stampeders football camp for new Canadians and supported the PinkPower game, which promotes awareness for women's cancers.

The Presidents' Ring was established in 1967 by team president George McMahon and general manager Rogers Lehw.

HERM HARRISON MEMORIAL AWARD

In 2025, the Herm Harrison Memorial Award was presented to Jalen Philpot.

Established in 2013, the annual award recognizes a Stampeders player for his outstanding community service.

The University of Calgary alum was a consistent presence in Calgary schools, connecting with youth through the Stamps' off-season basketball program as well as the Football 101 and flag football initiatives, teaching junior high students the fundamentals of football and fostering teamwork by playing alongside them.

Philpot also participated in the Reading . . . Give It a Shot! program, which motivates students from kindergarten to Grade 6 to read by offering incentives such as literacy collector cards. He also contributed to CGY Champs by creating video content that supports K–8 students in building social and emotional learning skills.

Furthering his commitment to youth and inclusion in sport, Philpot supported the Kids Up Front Poker Tournament, which raises funds to help lower the financial barriers to youth participation in sports and recreational activities. He also took part in a Canadian Blood Services campaign. Additionally, he served as an ambassador for Hike for Hospice, visiting local hospice facilities and participating in events to raise awareness and support for end-of-life care.

In addition, Philpot was an active member of the Every Yard Counts program. The Stampeders' longest-standing community initiative sees Stampeders players visit the Alberta Children's Hospital before every home game to spend time with young patients and their families.

One of the franchise's all-time greats, Herm Harrison played for the Stampeders from 1964-72 and was a West Division all-star on six occasions and a CFL all-star three times. Harrison remained in Calgary following his playing days and continued to support numerous community initiatives.

Established in 2013, the annual award recognizes a Stampeders player for his outstanding community service. Honouring the memory of one the legendary figures in Stampeders history, the Herm Harrison Memorial Award was instituted in 2014 and recognizes a Stampeders player who distinguishes himself in the field of community service. Harrison passed away on Nov. 2, 2013, at the age of 74.

One of the franchise's all-time greats, Harrison played for the Stampeders from 1964-72 and was a West Division all-star on six occasions and a CFL all-star three times. ATTACK IN BLACK

The Stampeders have an all-time record of 37-13-1 (regular season and post-season) while wearing their black jerseys, good for a .735 winning percentage.

The Stamps were the first Canadian Football League team to introduce a permanent third jersey when they unveiled black jerseys for the Labour Day Classic on Sept. 6, 1994. They capped the occasion with a 48-15 win over Edmonton.

Calgary played its first black-jersey playoff game in the 1998 West Division final and defeated Edmonton. A week later, while again sporting black, the Stamps beat Hamilton 26-24 in the Grey Cup.

LABOUR DAY CLASSIC

Since 1982 and for all but two seasons since 1969, the Calgary Stampede have been hosting Edmonton in the Labour Day Classic. The Labour Day edition of the Battle of Alberta was first played in Calgary in 1959 and the clubs have met a total of 58 times, with the Stamps holding a record of 31-27-1.

While there is a lot of Labour Day history between Calgary and Edmonton, there is more to the Red and White's tradition on the September holiday than the rivalry with their provincial counterparts.

As a matter of fact, the first Labour Day game was the first regular-season contest the Stampede ever played. The historic Sept. 2, 1946, game was against the Regina Roughriders at Calgary's Mewata Stadium, with the Stamps winning 9-0.

It was in 1949 that the now-familiar Calgary-Edmonton Labour Day matchup was born. The Alberta teams played five straight years in Edmonton before the series was briefly abandoned. Then, in 1959, the Red and White's rivalry with the Green and Gold was renewed. This time, Calgary was the site of the game and, with only a few exceptions over the years, it is in this form the tradition continues to exist today.

A total of 69 Labour Day games have been played in Calgary over the years, with the Stamps posting a 41-27-1 record. Calgary is 31-27-1 against Edmonton and undefeated against the Blue Bombers (6-0), Argonauts (2-0), Roughriders (1-0) and Lions (1-0).

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY DINOS ALUMNI

Beginning with offensive lineman/linebacker Craig McLeod in 1971, 53 members of the University of Calgary Dinos have gone on to play at least one regular-season game for the Stampeders. From the time McLeod joined the Red and White in 1971, there has been at least one Dinos alum on the Stamps roster every year with the exception of the 2000 season.

A total of 14 U of C alumni who played for the Stampeders captured Grey Cup titles while in uniform for the Red and White.

Here is the complete list of players who have played for both the Dinos and Stamps through 2025:
