THEODORE ALEXANDER

Alexa Hampton

"I think designers and entrepreneurs have much in common. My work in design and as an entrepreneur overlap because both are focused on filling the needs of the client. I strive to create beautiful living spaces that express the lifestyle of those residing within them. While many say that form and function are separate entities, in my mind, they are fundamentally linked. Purpose is the cornerstone of ultimate luxury. I endeavor to design products that are both beautiful and useful. What could be better?"

The Alexa Hampton Collection

From New York City to Hangzhou, China, Alexa Hampton's project portfolio encompasses luxe, beautifully layered urban apartments, expansive town and country residences, private airplanes, and yachts.
